

INDEX TO VOL. XV.

(NEW SERIES.)

ORIGINAL ARTICLES.

	PAGE
Three Diagnostic Signs of Melancholia. By Landon Carter Gray, M.D.	1
A Case of Cervical Paraplegia from Dislocation. Autopsy. (Illustrated.) By Christian A. Heber, M.D.	10
A Contribution to the Clinical Study of Spontaneous Degenerative Neuritis of the Brachial Plexus. (Illustrated.) By William M. Leszynsky, M.D.	18
Hemorrhage into the Cerebellum and Fourth Ventricle, and by Extension into the Third and Lateral Ventricles. By Charles K. Mills, M.D.	43
Paralysis of Serratus Magnus. (Illustrated.) By Ross R. Bunting, M.D.	67
The Knee Jerk After Section of the Spinal Cord. By Edward T. Reichert, M.D.	71
A Case of Acute Melancholia, During the Progress of Which There Appeared Argyll-Robertson Pupil, with Abolished Patellar Reflexion on One Side and Much Diminished on the Other. By H. A. Tomlinson, M.D.	75
Trephining for Extra-Dural Hemorrhage. By John B. Deaver, M.D.	83
Two Cases of Paralysis Occurring During the Puerperal State. By M. Imogene Bassett, M.D.	93
Morphine Injections Followed By Emphysematous Gangrene (Malignant Oedema). By L. Brenner, M.D.	97
Notes on Some Cases of Chorea and Tremor. (Illustrated.) By Chas. K. Mills, M.D.	131
Congenital Bilateral Ptosis and Facial Paralysis. (Illustrated.) By A. Schnapfner, M.D.	143
A Case of Multiple Cerebral Softening, Wide-profundus Leptarteritis, Dissecting Aneurism of Branch of Left Middle Cerebral Artery. (Illustrated.) By Christian A. Heber, M.D.	156
A Contribution to the Study of Epilepsy. By Frank H. Ingram, M.D.	165
Reports of Six Cases of Friedreich's Ataxia Occurring in Three Different Families. By Chas. W. Cook, M.D., and Chas. L. Dana, M.D.	173
Report of the Committee of the New York Neurological Society upon the Gallup-Lumbar Bill.	181
A Case of Ophthalmic Migraine. By J. Chalmers Du Costa, M.D.	217
Remarks on the Pathology of Chorea. By F. D. Fisher, M.D.	221
Specimen Showing Anomaly of the Circle of Willis. (Illustrated.) By James Hendrie Lloyd, M.D.	225
Functional Nervous Diseases and their Relations to Gastro-Intestinal Derangements. By W. H. Thomson, M.D.	227
Hypnotism. By Frederick Bateman, M.D., F.R.C.P.	287
A Study of Cerebral Pulsos of Early Life, Based Upon an Analysis of One Hundred and Forty Cases. (Illustrated.) By R. Sachs, M.D., and F. Peterson, M.D.	295
The Rational Treatment of Sciatica. By Grace M. Hammond, M.D.	333
The Minute Structure of the Gray Nerve Tissue. (Illustrated.) By C. Heitzman, M.D.	357
Hysterical Fever. (Illustrated.) By Mary Putnam Jacobs, M.D.	373

A Case of Chorea attended with Multiple Neuritis. By Frank R. Fry, A.M., M.D.	389
Notes on the Action of Gelsemium in Some Local Spasms and Neuralgias. By M. Imogene Bassette, M.D.	395
Report of an Interesting Case of Feigned Insanity. By M. D. Field, M.D.	401
Unusual Cases of Chorea, Possibly Involving the Spinal Cord. By S. Weir Mitchell, M.D. and Chas. W. Burr, M.D.	427
Contribution to the Study of the Traumatic Neuro-Psychoses. By G. L. Walton, M.D.	432
A Case of Locomotor Ataxia Associated with Nuclear Cranial Nerve Palsies and with Muscular Atrophies. (Illustrated.) By Frederick Peterson, M.D.	450
A Contribution to the Pathology of the Laryngeal and other Crises in Tuberc Dorsalis. By Ira Van Gieson, M.D.	458
A Form of Poly Neuritis, Probably Analogous to or Identical with Beri-Beri Occurring in Sea Faring Men in Northern Latitudes. By James J. Putnam, M.D.	495
Tumor of the Thalamus, More Especially of the Pulvinar, Presenting Wernicke's Pupil Reaction. By F. X. Dercum, M.D.	500
Report of Cases Illustrating Cerebral Localization. (Illustrated.) By J. H. McBride, M.D.	512
A Contribution to the Therapeutics of Spastic Palsy. By V. P. Gilman, M.D.	520
A Case of Insular Sclerosis, in which an Attack of Cerebral Hemorrhage Arrested the Tremor on the Hemiplegic Side. By Wharton Sinkler, M.D.	524
The Hypnotic State of Hysteria. By William C. Krauss, M.D.	529
Progressive Senile Paraplegia: A Contribution to the Study of Non-Inflammatory Softening of the Cord. (Illustrated.) By Chas. L. Dana, M.D.	593
Two Cases of Syringomyelia. (Illustrated.) By John Amory Jetties, M.D.	568
Cases of Hysteria Treated by Hypnotism. By S. G. Webber, M.D.	585
A Case of Focal Hemorrhagic Lesion of the Prepyramidal Anterior Cerebellar Peduncle. By H. M. Barnister, M.D.	597
On the Germ of a Communicable Disease derived from a Dog, alleged to have died of Rabies, which retains Rabies Characters. By Richard Mollenhauer, M.D.	604
Acute Myelitis, preceded by Acute Optic Neuritis. By J. T. Eskridge, M.D.	609
A Contribution to the Pathology of Solitary Tubercle of the Spinal Cord. By Christian A. Herter, M.D.	631
On Gold Chloride as a Staining Agent for Nerve Fibres. (Illustrated.) By Henry S. Upson, M.D.	640
Two Cases of Friedreich's Disease. By Chas. Henry Brown, M.D.	657
Clinical Evidences of Borderland Insanity. By Irving C. Rosse, M.D.	669
Two Cases of Tumor of the Cerebellum. (Illustrated.) By J. Arthur Booth, M.D.	684
Diffuse Cortical Sclerosis of the Brain in Children. By Wm. N. Bullard, M.D.	699
Brachio-Facial Monospasm, following Probable Embolism, with Consequent Degenerative Changes in Brain and Localized Meningitis. Death from Apoplexy. (Illustrated.) By Morris L. Lewis, M.D.	710
A Case of Tubercular Meningitis, with Autopsy. By Wm. Broadbush Pritchard, M.D.	720
A New Electropion. By Chas. Henry Brown, M.D.	727
A Case of Spina Bifida with Suppurative Spinal Meningitis and Ependymitis, Due to Bacteria Entering the Wall of the Sac. By L. Emmet Holt, M.D. and Ira Van Gieson, M.D.	774
A Study of Heat Production and Heat Dissipation in the Normal and Febrile States. By William A. Carter, M.D.	782
Treatment of Epilepsy. By Philip Zenner, A.M., M.D.	799

PERISCOPE.

Hypnotism in Scandinavia—Extirpation of a Cephalocele—On the Direct Heredity of Insanity—Emotional Disturbances as a Cause of Diseases—Four Cases of Aphasia, with Autopsies—Hemiatrophy of the Tongue of Bulbar Origin—A Case of Landry's Paralysis, with Recovery—Rheumatic Tic Convulsit, with Thickening of the Trunk of the Facial Nerve—The Pathology of Acute Poliomyelitis Anterior—Pseudo Hypertrophic Muscular Atrophy in Two Brothers—Treatment of Periodical Drunkenness with Strychnine Salts—Results Obtained by Suspension in Cases of Tabes—Concerning Motor Hallucination	45
Insanity After Acute Surgical or Medical Affections—Veratrum Viride in Exophthalmic Goitre—Hyperpyrexia in Hysteria—Traumatic Hysteria—Hydrotherapy in Mental Diseases—Gastric Neurasthenia and its Treatment—Criminal Responsibility in Narcoomania—A Contribution to the Study of Exophthalmic Goitre—A Case of Cerebro Spinal Meningitis—On Alimentary Therapy in the Treatment of Mental Diseases	102
Exophthalmic Goitre	142
A New Mechanical Treatment for Tabes	155
Antipyrine in Angina Pectoris	172
Delirium Tremens—The Electrical Resistance of the Human Body—The Musical Sense in Idiots—Epileptic Arithomania—Post Febrile Insanity—Chloralamid—Asthma as a Neuroses—Dipsomania—Treatment of Dipsomania by Hypnotism—Experiments Relating to the Action of Alcohol on the Brain—Drunkenness: Its Influence on the Mind—On the Diagnosis in and about the Eyes—Iodotom in Cerebro Spinal Meningitis—The Bromides in Epilepsy—The Disposition to be made of Criminal Lunatics—Symptoms of Grave Diseases of the Nervous System Relieved by Restoration of the Equilibrium of the Muscles of the Eyes—The Effects of Stimulation on the Polarization of Nerve—On Two Cases of Rummation in the Insane—Surgical Operations as a Cause of Insanity—Chorea Hereditaria—A Modification of Weigert's Method for the Coloration of Nervous Centres—The Effects of Extirpation of the Celiac Plexus	187
Classifications of Mental Diseases	220
Unilateral Abscess of Knee Jerk—Pathological Finding in a Case	224
Functions of the Brain—Hysterio Epilepsy in Boys	226
Tumors in the Region of the Corpora Quadrigemina—A Case of Tumor of the Pineal Gland—Pathological Findings in a Case of Traumatic Neurosis—The Diagnostic Value of Increased Knee Jerk and Ankle Clonus—Theory of the Origin of the Traumatic Neuroses—Experimental Observations of the Relation of the Motor Ganglion Cells of the Cord to the Peripheral Nerves—Hemiatrophy of the Brain—The Psychic and Somatic Degeneration of Criminals—An Instrument for the Perception of Light Through the Senses of Temperature and Position—On the Phenomena Appearing in Animals After Section of the Posterior Columns of the Spinal Cord, and the Relation of the Latter to the Equilibrium of the Body—A Case of Semi Lateral Facial Atrophy—Compression of the Spinal Cord in Consequence of Fracture of the Second Dorsal Vertebra—Erl's Paralysis—Malarial Neuritis and Neuro Retinitis—Heredity as a Factor in Alcoholism—How Whooping Cough is Treated in Spain—A Case of Alexia—Fronto Facial Asymmetry of the Insane	248
Therapeutic Brevities	332
Cerebral Surgery	342
Chorea Among the Insane—Duboisia Sulphate in Puerperal Mania—Myxedema and Co Existing Exophthalmic Goitre—Tropho-Neurosis as a Factor in the Phenomena of Syphilis	343
Hernia Cerebri	400

Cranio-Cerebral Topography. By C. L. Dana, M.D.	407
A Case of Psychic Paresis, with Autopsy	431
Cerebral Complications of Ear Disease	440
Pseudo-Disseminated Sclerosis following Variola	457
Melancholia—Neurasthenia or Anæmia—Multiple Neuritis—Source and Nature of Lead Poisoning—Hernia Cerebri—Ideas of Persecution in Exophthalmic Goitre—Hydrophobia—The Path of Motor and Sensory Reinforcements—The Insane of Massachusetts—Reflex Neuroses—The Insanity of Doubt—Progressive Facial Hemiatrophy—Dislocation of Cervical Vertebrae Without Fatal Results.	472
Removal of the Hand Centre from the Cortex Cerebri in a Case of Local Epilepsy	505
The Physiology of Sleep	510
Cerebral Gumma Stimulating the Syndrome of General Paresis	533
Ataxia in a Child of Twelve—Syphilis and General Paresis—Culler's Classification of Insanity—Some Cerebral Lesions—Cannabin in Exophthalmic Goitre—Clinical Psychiatry—Hypodermic Treatment of Asthma—Asthma Considered Especially in Relation to Nasal Diseases—Asthma in Childhood—Wakefulness of Neurasthenia—Hallucinations from Atropine Instillations in the Eye—Large Doses of Kali Iodide—Central Abscess of the Brain—Traumatic Epilepsy—Fracture of the Skull—Cerebral Tumor—Diastolic Power of Extract of Malt—Mental and Nervous Troubles following Grippe—Fever in Exophthalmic Goitre—Compound Comminuted Fracture of the Skull—Syphilis of the Brain—Examinations Involving Suits for Damages—Infantile Convulsions—Antipyrine in Mental Alimentation—Somnambulism—Reflex Epilepsy	534
Influence of the Nervous System on Putrefaction	567
The Study of Cerebral Hemiplegia—A Contribution to the Pathology of Tabes Dorsalis—The Excessive Use of Coffee and its Deleterious Results—The Pathogeny of Vices—Nutrition in Hysteria—Uric Acid and Personal Peculiarity—Forcible Flexion of the Body in Locomotor Ataxia—The Warnings of General Paresis of the Insane Double Athetosis—Ataxic Para Paresis—Secondary Idiocy	616
The Mechanism of Insanity—The Effect of Antipyrine on the Solubility of Caffeine	645
Some Sedatives for Insane Patients	656
The Paralysis of Laryngeal Muscles During the Course of Tabes Dorsalis—Cerebral Localization	668
Hyperalimentation in Acute Delirium—Massage in Mental Diseases—Tumor of the Corpus Callosum—Insomnia and Its Treatment—A Grouping of the Various Forms of Insanity—Restriction in the Visual Field in Syringo Myelia—Psychoses Following Influenza—Insanity Proceeding from the Colon—Scolioses in Sciatic Neuralgias—On the Nervous Forms of the Grippe—Treatment of the Urogenital Apparatus—The Anti Epileptic Action of Aurum Bromatum—Tetanus in Gastrectasia—Clinical Contribution to our Knowledge of Tetanus—On the Physiology of the Intra Cortical Ganglia and their Relations to the Epileptic Attack—Post Diphtheritic Respiratory Paralysis Causing Pulmonary Complications—Chloralamid	730
The Resistance of the Human Body in its Relation to the Faradic Current—Anesthesias of Hysteria—The Experimental Study of Reflex Pupillary Immobility—Traumatic Tabes—Muscular Atrophy and Changes in Electrical Reaction Occurring as a Result of Cerebral Disease—Glosso Labial Laryngeal Paralysis—Relief from a Grave Type of Epilepsy Following the Correction of an Exaggerated Convergent Strabismus—Thomsen's Disease—A New Medical Journal—Physical and Mental Traits of Criminals—Cerebral Localization—Lindry's Paralysis—Hysterical Pseudo-Tabes—Artero Sclerotic Vertigo—Salaam Cured by Massage—Vivisections of the Human Brain—Suspension and Postural Methods in Nervous

- Disease—Restriction of the Field of Vision in Syringomyelia—Senile Hysteria—Excision of the Cerebral Cortex as Surgical Treatment of Psychoses—Lesions in General Paresis—Histologically Considered—Visual Disturbances in Tabes Dorsalis, and an Attempt at a Comprehensive Explanation of the System Complex of Tabes—The Effect upon the Bodily Temperature of Lesion of the Corpus Striatum and Optic Thalamus—Knee Jerk and its Physiological Modifications—Tinnitus Aurium—A Note..... 804

SOCIETY PROCEEDINGS.

AMERICAN NEUROLOGICAL ASSOCIATION, Meeting of June 4, 5, 6, 1890:

- President's Address—Unusual Cases of Chorea, Possibly Involving the Spinal Cord—Double Consciousness—The Weather in Relation to Neuralgic Pain—A Contribution to the Study of Traumatic
 Neuro-Psychoses..... 486
 A Case of Locomotor Ataxia associated with Muscular Cranial Nerve Palsies and with Muscular Atrophies—A Case of Complete Paraplegia Cured by Operation—Diffuse Cortical Sclerosis of the Brain in Children..... 551
 A Comparison of the Value of Different Therapeutic Methods Employed in the Treatment of Nervous Diseases—Pons Lesions in their Relation to Associated Eye Movement Paralysis..... 625
 A Contribution from Brain Surgery to the Study of the Localization of the Sensory Centres in the Cerebral Cortex—On Cases of Postero-Lateral Sclerosis, with Special Reference to the Pathology of the Disease—On Incurable Apoplexy—Hyperalimentation in Acute Delirium—Massage in Mental Diseases..... 693 Exhibition of the Left Hemicerebrum of Chauncey Wright—The Contraction of the Heart and Ordinary Striated Muscle—Diphtheria and Diphtheritic Paralysis—Tumor of the Quadrigeminal Region, with Special Reference to Ocular Symptoms—Crus Lesion..... 753

PHILADELPHIA NEUROLOGICAL SOCIETY:

- Meeting of October 28, 1889: A Case of Hemianopsia with Dyslexia; also Jacksonian Epilepsy—Exhibition of a Chinese Brain..... 55 Meeting of November 25, 1889: Hemorrhage Beneath the Scalp, and Cerebral and Cerebellar Hemorrhages in a Case of Alleged Traumatism—Extensive Cortical Softening—Tumor of the Brain, exhibited by Dr. Guy Hinsdale—Discussion..... 61
 Mercurial Tremor..... 116
 Meeting of December 23, 1889: Paralysis of the Serratus Magnus—
 Two Cases of Paralysis occurring during the Puerperal State—
 A Case of Acute Melancholia..... 121
 Meeting of January 27, 1890: Anomalous Distribution of the Circle of Willis..... 122
 Meeting of February 24, 1890: Ophthalmic Migraine—Hysterical Amblyopia in a Colored Girl Nine Years of Age—Embolism of the Radial Artery..... 271
 Meeting of April 28, 1890: Notes on the Action of Gelsemium—
 Spinal Caries and Pachymeningitis Involving Dorsal and Caudal
 Equinal Region—Cyst of the Lenticular Nucleus..... 317 Meeting of October 27, 1890: Resume of a New Operation for Spasmodic Wry Neck—Severe Spasm Involving Muscles of the Neck, Persisting after Repeated Surgical Procedures and Active Medical Treatment—Spasmodic Torticollis Unsuccessfully Treated by Ligating the Spinal Accessory Nerve with a Silver Wire—Failure of Sciatic Stretching for a Typical Case of

Symmetrical Lateral Sclerosis—Two Cases of Sciatic Stretching—Suture of the Peroneal Nerve—Trigeminal Neuralgia of Long Standing Relieved by an Operation—Probable Lesion of the Posterior Mediastrium—Remarks on Two Cases Simulating Hydrophobia and Occurring after Dog Bites—Case Simulating Hydrophobia and Occurring Some Months after a Dog Bite, . . .	820

NEW YORK NEUROLOGICAL SOCIETY:

Meeting of February 4, 1890: Multiple Cerebral Softening, with Widespread Endarteritis and a Dissecting Aneurism of a Branch of the Left Middle Cerebral Artery—Gallup Lunacy Bill, ...	210
Meeting of March 4, 1890: Tumor of the Medulla and Left Anophthalmus—Pathology of Chorea, ...	200
Meeting of April 1, 1890: Case of Feigned Insanity—The Rational Treatment of Sciatica, ...	415
Meeting of May 6, 1890: Can We Diagnose Hypercemia and Anemia of the Brain and Cord?	550
Meeting of October 7, 1890: Can We Diagnose Hypercemia or Anemia of the Brain and Cord?—The Sensation of Itching, . . .	760
Meeting of November 4, 1890: Astasia and Abasia—Syringo-Myelia—A Case of Spina Bifida, with Suppurative Meningitis and Ependymitis of Bacterial Origin—Cerebral Compression, . . .	822

BOOK REVIEWS.

A Treatise on Headache and Neuralgia. By J. Leonard Corning, M.A., M.D.—Eye Stain. By David Webster, M.D.—Practical Electricity in Medicine and Surgery. (Illustrated.) By George H. Rohé, M.D. and G. A. Liebig, Jr., Ph.D.—The International Medical Annual and Practitioner's Index. (Illustrated.) Edited by A. W. Williams. Practical Lessons in Nursing. Published by J. B. Lippincott Co.—The Literary Digest. Published by Funk & Wagnalls, ...	280
A Text Book of Mental Diseases, with Special Reference to the Pathological Aspects of Insanity. By W. Bayan Lewis, L.R.C.P.—The Neuroses of the Genito-Urinary System in the Male, with Sterility and Impotence. By Dr. R. Uetzmann—Spinal Concussion. (Illustrated.) By S. V. Clevenger, M.D., ...	351
A New Medical Dictionary. By Geo. M. Gould, B.A., M.D., ...	422
Practical Photo Micrography. By Andrew Pringle, F.R.M.S., ...	422
Familiar Forms of Nervous Disease. By M. Allen Starr, M.D.—Injuries and Diseases of Nerves and their Special Treatment, By Anthony A. Bowlby, M.D.—The Annual of the Universal Medical Sciences. Edited by Charles E. Sajous, M.D.—From the Stump to the Limb. By A. A. Marks—Electricity in the Diseases of Women. By G. Patton Massey, M.D.—Flushing and Morbid Blushing. By Henry Campbell, M.D., ...	770
Books, Pamphlets, Etc., received, ... 216, 282, 354, 423, 562, 855

ASYLUM NOTES.

The Lunacy Commission's Report of the State of New York—A Resolution Recently Passed by the New York State Commissioners of Lunacy, ...	124
The Treatment of the Acutely Insane in General Hospitals, ...	278
Notes, ...	349
The Need of Asylums for Inebriates, ...	629

NEW INSTRUMENTS.

An Improved Tape Measure. (Illustrated.) By William C. Krauss, M.D.—Electrical Batteries	128
A Test of Wilson's Cystometer. (Illustrated.) By H. J. Mulford, M.D.	213
An Improved Calorimeter. (Illustrated.) By Isaac Ött, M.D.	348

MISCELLANY.

The Solvent Properties of Buffalo Lithia Water—The Johns Hopkins Hospital Bulletin—Note upon the Paper "The Relation of the Thalamus," Etc., in the Number for July, 1889.	52
Report of the Committee on Anatomical Nomenclature with Special Reference to the Brain—Tenth International Medical Congress.	286
Sulphonal and Chloralamid—Hæmoglobin Compound—Complimentary to One of Our Electrical Manufacturers—New Words—Notice.	355
American Neurological Association.	424
Quadruplex.	494
Invitation to the Tenth International Medical Congress.	130
The American Neurological Association.	216
